

REGULAR MEETING
KAYCEE TOWN HALL
January 27, 2026
7:00 P.M.

Present: Vice-Mayor: Tom Knapp. Councilmembers: Bob Furnival, Kelsey Anderson, and Pat Foster. Public: Natalie Maxwell, Victoria Davis, Kari Pavey, Wyatt Davis, Waylon Davis, and Tevan Pavey.

Vice-Mayor Knapp called the regular meeting to order at 7:00 p.m.

NEW BUSINESS:

Outlaw Music Festival: Ms. Maxwell shared an update with the Council regarding the music festival that will take place June 20th and 21st this summer. The entire event will be held at the HJP and the committee is working with local agencies to ensure it is a safe and fun event. The town agreed to help with providing extra dumpsters for the weekend.

Alliance for Hope and Cactus 4H: Local 4H kids presented the Council with the opportunity to place a wood bank within town. They have been cutting firewood and have built a holder for the wood. Councilman Furnival will meet with them next Monday to help determine a good spot to place the wood bank.

Updates/Correspondence:

- The new emergency alert system being used is Everbridge. This replaces the use of Code Red and will alert community members more efficiently.

OLD BUSINESS: None.

LEGAL ISSUES:

Municipal Judge: Mr. Hengel will reach out to Judge Hupy regarding municipal judge work for the Town of Kaycee.

MINUTES: Councilman Furnival moved to approve the minutes from the January 13th regular meeting as presented. Councilman Foster seconded. Motion carried.
